Screenshot

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title "Prediction of flight delay". The browser's address bar shows the file path "D:/IBM%20Project/code/flight%20delay.html". The web page has a blue header with the title "Prediction of flight delay". Below the header, there is a form with the following fields:

- Enter flight Number:
- Month:
- Day of month:
- Day of week:
- Origin:
- Destination:
- Scheduled Departure Time:
- Scheduled Arrival Time:
- Actual Departure Time:

A green "Submit" button is located at the bottom right of the form. The background of the form features a large image of a white airplane with a rainbow stripe on its tail, flying over a sunset sky. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom of the screen, showing the time as 11:14 AM on 11/18/2022.
